A PROCLAMATION,

Superceding the Monthly Fast after September, 1693.

WILLIAM and MARY by the Grace of GOD, King and Queen of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, Defenders of the Faith; To Machers of Our Privy Council, or Messengers at Arms, Our Sheriffs in that part, conjunctly and severally, specially constitute, Greeting: Forasmuch as, by the First ACT of the Last Session of this Our Currant Parliament, a Day of Solemn Fasting and Humiliation was appointed to be observed by all Persons within this Kingdom, upon the Third Thursday of every Month, until Intimation of forbearance should be made by the Lords of Our Privy Council: And We considering the Season of the Year being far spent, it may be convenient to supercede the observing the said Fast Day, after this Month of September: Therefore We, with Advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby Certifie and give Intimation to all Our Liedges, that the said Fast and Humiliation is only to be observed upon the Third Thursday of this currant Month of September, and to be superceded and forborn for afterward. And to the effect Our pleasure in the premisses may be known, OUR WILL IS HEREFOR, and We Charge you strictly, and Command, that incontinent these Our Letters seen, ye pass to the Mercat-Cross of Edinburgh, and whole other Mercat-Crosses of the Head Burghs of the several Shires and Stewartries within this Kingdom, and there by open Proclamation make Publication of the Premisses, that none pretend ignorance; And Ordains these presents to be Printed.

Given under Our Signet at Edinburgh, the seventh day of September, and of Our Reign the Fifth Year, 1693.

*Per Actum Dominorum Secreti Concilii,
In Supplementum Signet.*
